Indictment against H. B. Claflin & Co. [illegible]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Judge Benedict to-day rendered a decision on the motion to quash the criminal indictment against the firm of H B Claflin & Co., who were indicted for connection with silk smuggling frauds. Judge Benedict sustained the indictment, with the exception of the fourth count. The opinion in brief is as follows. The indictment contains four counts. First, that of concealing smuggled goods, second of facilitating the transportation; third of facilitating sale of certain merchandise. These three counts are similar in form. The fourth count is different, and will be considered by itself. The rules by which sufficiency of an indictment is to be determined have been too often stated to require repeating. These rules as they have been understood and applied in adjudged cases are to be applied here. Plainly the language [illegible] description of the goods, to-wit: Certain [illegible] and merchandise, a large quantity of [illegible] containing silk goods valued at [illegible], a more particular description of which is to the jurors unknown,' is sufficient. There is also [illegible] that the goods were dutiable [illegible] into New York from France. Judged by [illegible] the description is sufficient. The next objection [illegible] illegality in importation of these goods is not properly stated. In support of this objection [illegible] is advanced that an indictment for buying goods which have been brought into the United States contrary to law must set out the offense committed in the original importation, with the same particularity that would be required [illegible] for the original offense. Such a [illegible] cannot be maintained. The next objection, that [illegible] four of the act of 1866 cannot [illegible] other cases than that of smuggled goods, need not be entertained here, for this indictment is confined to such a case. The court proceeds to [illegible] the word smuggling and adopts the [illegible] definition of 1874. The real difficulty of the [illegible] does not lie in the form or manner [illegible] but in the fact that the charge made does not conform to proofs they supposed the government to have. Upon argument the district attorney was challenged to admit that none of the goods [illegible] were smuggled goods but it can [illegible] be made to appear that the indictment [illegible]. The fourth count in the indictment [illegible] allegation of violations of law [illegible] is vague and cannot be sustained and therefore the [illegible] as to this count is granted, but as to the [illegible] counts in the indictment the motion to quash is denied and indictment sustained.

[illegible] of Frauds in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Nov 5.—There was considerable excitement this evening in certain circles in consequence of a rumor of the presentation to the attorney [illegible] of papers and evidence looking to the arrest of certain officials and contractors in Brooklyn. The papers emanate from prominent lawyers and from the Taxpayers Association. [illegible] Mayor Booth said, to night, that those who were engaged in this movement were in earnest, but at the present time he could not disclose the action. Those who had given information in regard to the [illegible] was guilty of violation of confidence [illegible] papers, he presumed, were now in the hands of the attorney [illegible], but whether there was sufficient evidence to take action on he could not say.

Republicans claim 10 000 to 12 000 majority for all State candidates except [illegible], who will probably have 4 000 to 5 000. The legislative returns as yet are meager, but the [illegible] appear to have gained four or five [illegible]. This, if not overcome by a Republican gain, will make the legislature very close.

The Brooklyn Revival.

NEW YORK, Nov 6.—The Brooklyn tabernacle was filled this morning at the revival service. Mr Sankey was [illegible], and Rev Fred Bell took his place, leading in the singing of 'Jesus Lover of my Soul,' 'Nearer, my God, to Thee' and other hymns. Mr. [illegible] had a great many requests for prayer, and all bowed [illegible] prayers for others [illegible] to have more people requesting [illegible] themselves. Moody then read the 28th [illegible] of Acts, basing his discourse upon the incident of St. Paul and the viper. He read as a fourth [illegible] Paul's Epistle to Corinthians and the 9th verse of the 5th chapter of St. Matthew, 'Blessed are they who do hunger and thirst after righteousness.' He had prayed that God would fill him [illegible] not ask for drops, but floods [illegible]. Mr. Needham, Irish evangelist, offered a fervent prayer for the blessing of God on their work [illegible] followed by representative clergymen of several [illegible], one of whom said that he thought the cause of Christ would be furthered if they stopped patronizing groceries, butchers, barbers and street cars on the Sabbath, but was interrupted [illegible] saying they must not wander from the [illegible], and called upon Rev Mr [illegible] to pronounce the benediction, after which the congregation was dismissed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Moody and Sankey services held at Brooklyn rink to-day had the usual attendance. During the morning services the [illegible] and two or three thousand were unable to gain admission. Moody discoursed from the 7th verse of the 3d chapter of St Luke and during his remarks many of the audience were moved to tears. He urged the congregation to [illegible] pride and love of the world from their hearts and make room for God. At the close Sankey sang 'Knocking at the Door.' The services at night were exclusively for the benefit of sinners and all those who confessed themselves sinners were furnished with tickets of admission.

Loader Perjury Case—Motion to Quash Indictment Denied.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The case of Joseph Loader, indicted for perjury in connection with the Beecher scandal, came up before Judge Morris to day in the Brooklyn court of sessions. Loader's counsel made a motion for an order that a commission be appointed to go to Mount Clair, N. J., and take testimony under oath of Joseph H Richards and his wife, to be used on trial. The counsel said the affidavit of defendant showed that this was necessary. The motion was opposed by the district attorney and after a short argument the judge took the papers, reserving his decision. The court denied a motion recently made to quash the indictment against Loader.

The Beecher Case in Plymouth Church.

NEW YORK, Nov 6.—There is no probability of the disgusting revival of the public scandal in the Beecher-Tilton case, growing out of the recent action of the Congregational Association referring the case to the committee. There is no new movement implying fresh doubts of the Plymouth pastor. The motion looking to investigation was made more than a year ago and tabled pending the suit between Tilton and Beecher. This left the matter open on the association record and it came up last Wednesday as unfinished business, when the effort was made to adopt a resolution which should leave the case open indefinitely for future action. This was earnestly opposed by Rev. Storrs, who was understood to [illegible] Beecher's friends, and finally substituted a resolution referring the whole subject to a committee, to report, at their earliest convenience, the proper action thereon, which was adopted unanimously. The province of the committee is not an investigation of the relations of Beecher either to his church or congregation, nor to pass upon Tilton's or other charges, but simply to determine what shall be done with the year ago resolution looking to investigation. Upon this point the committee are unlikely to agree in any majority report. The probabilities are in favor of the ultimate dismissal of the entire proceedings.

Since the beginning of the year the direct shipments of the three coal mines—Seattle, Renton and Talbot—to San Francisco aggregate 50 738 tons, of which their respective portions are as follows: Seattle, 16 589 tons; Talbot, 1,889 tons. Sixty-seven vessels either partially or entirely have gone loaded with this coal.

The Boise Statesman says: Col. Mat Graham, T. D. Agnew, O. A. Miller and Sam Fry have been out on the head of the Weiser river to prospect a mica lead discovered by Mr Fry some time ago. They returned Sunday and brought in some very fine specimens of mica. They say it can be found in large quantities and Mr Graham thinks it worth more than any quartz lead in the Territory.

The following business was transacted in the land office at Vancouver during the month of October: Original homestead entries 7, aggregate acres 724 37; final homestead entries 3, aggregate acres 481 25; cash entries, pre-emption, 2, aggregate acres 213 07; cash entries commuted homestead, 1, $40; declaratory statements filed 5, aggregate acres 676 05; donation certificates issued 2, aggregate acres 481 50. Total acres 2 649 91.

The Olympia Courier of Nov. 6th says: "Late last evening Surveyor General McMicken had not received permission to file the plats of surveys in San Juan county, but in case orders do not come to day, he will telegraph for instructions, so it is likely that the plats will be filed next week and then our friends of the Archipelago will be happy, because they can secure titles to their homes. A great injustice has been done them in the long and unnecessary delay that has been caused them."

A FATAL GAME OF CROQUET.—The Titusville (Penn.) Herald gives the particulars of the singular accident in that city on the 20th inst., by which a gentleman lost his life while engaged in a friendly game of croquet. It says:

Mr. Reuben P. Benton and Mr. J. D. Strickland were engaged on the grounds in the rear of the Warren and Venango passenger depot. Both gentlemen were on the most friendly terms, and they were in the habit of playing on these favorite grounds almost daily. Mr. Strickland made a mis play, and, as commonly occurs on such occasions among the boys, he peevishly attempted to throw his mallet after the ball. By some unforeseen chance the handle of the mallet caught in the sleeve of his coat and it was hurled in the direction of his companion, striking him on the right temple and felling him to the ground. The accident was witnessed by a number of bystanders, who at the time did not imagine that Mr. Benton was seriously injured. His prolonged insensibility, however, created considerable alarm and restoratives were ineffectually applied. Mr. Strickland ran in great haste for medical aid and a carriage, but before his return the unfortunate Benton was carried to his room in an insensible condition. Drs. Moody and Burr were on hand almost immediately upon his arrival and made a searching examination of the wound. It appears that the blow, which was struck on the right temple, was not sufficient to cause a fracture of the skull at that point, but, as is often the case, produced an effusion of blood at the base of the brain. Such an injury is almost inevitably fatal and the patient lingered on until 6 o'clock P. M., when he expired without recovering consciousness.

San Francisco Races.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—The fine weather drew a large attendance at the Bay District track this afternoon, and the sport began by finishing the postponed race between Goff's Gracie and Brandow's Sybil, resulting in a victory for Gracie in 2:44½. Next, was a race for horses who never beat 2:26, purse of $1 000—$700 to first, $200 to second and $100 to third horse, mile heats, 3 in 5, in harness. Four horses started—John Crook's g. m. Oakland Maid, O. A. Hickok's b. g. San Bruno, Dan Dennison's b. m. Mary Davis and Geo. Sichle's g. g. Hope. Pools were active, Oakland Maid $150 to $35 for San Bruno, Mary Davis and Hope $8 and $9. First heat—Hope had the pole, Maid second, and Bruno third. Mary Davis broke at the start and dropped out before reaching the half mile. San Bruno led round the turn, Hope second. Bruno passed the half in 1 11. Maid passed Hope before reaching the half and at the head of the home stretch was at Bruno's wheel. Maid broke going down the stretch, but recovered at once and within thirty yards of the score was neck and neck with Bruno. Here both broke simultaneously, San Bruno recovering first and winning the heat in 2:25¼. Second heat—Bad start, San Bruno and Hope both breaking. Maid led to the half in 1 12, Bruno five lengths behind and Hope trailing in home stretch. Bruno closed up considerably, but Maid came under the wire an open length ahead in 2 27, Hope third. Third heat—Maid and Bruno were together at the first turn, when the horse broke and came down to work quickly, but Maid led five lengths at the quarter, Hope five lengths further back. They kept this position to the head of the home stretch, where Crooks pulled the mare up and crossed the score at a jog winner in 2:31. Bruno second. Fourth heat—Maid had it all her own way, winning the heat, race and first money in 2 26, Bruno second.

National Gold Bank.

The trust deed recorded to day from H. L. Davis, president, and D. W. C. Thompson, cashier of the National Gold Bank and Trust Company, to Samuel Crim, John O. Eldridge and Walter B. Cummings, directors of the same bank, conveys the building and lot on the northeast corner of Sansome and Halleck streets, known as the Pacific Stock Exchange building, to secure a note dated Aug. 28, 1875, to the National Gold Bank and Trust Co., for $130,000.

Several additional clerks were relieved last evening from further duty at the National Gold Bank and Trust Co's. The cashier, D. W. C. Thompson, has resigned. President Henry L. Davis is still at his post. The affairs of the Bank are in the hands of the Finance Company. The amount the Bank owes depositors has been reduced to $600,000, all of which will be paid dollar for dollar. It is believed the stockholders will get the par value of their stock. Some time will elapse, however, before the business can be settled. Some of the directors are anxious for the reorganization and continuance of business.

Regarding the recent rumors concerning the conduct of Cate, cashier of the National Gold Bank and Trust Company, Mr. Thompson states so far as any irregularity is intimated in his transactions with the bank, there is no truth in the stories. He acknowledges his indebtedness to the bank to the extent of $175,000, but says the bank has deeds of trust and other collateral security equal to twice the amount of his obligations. He values his real estate here and in Oakland at $300,000, and owns 1,600 shares of the bank, par value of which is $160,000. The bank has control of $50,000 of this stock, besides a lien upon all his real estate. The Halleck building was taken on joint account by himself and Mr Davis, each borrowing on the same $65,000. This also has been turned over to the bank.

Heavy Rain Storm.

The rain which commenced falling this morning still continues. Wind is fresh from the southeast, with every prospect of rain through the night, and perhaps for several days. No advices as yet from the interior as to rainfall.

The Naval Investigation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—The naval court inquiry appointed to investigate the affairs of the navy purchasing office in San Francisco during the reign of Pinney under Spaulding closed testimony to day and adjourned to Mare Island to finish their report. Fifty witnesses, including bankers, merchants, contractors and attaches of the purchasing office, were examined. Five hundred foolscap pages of testimony were recorded. Judge Advocate Schenck reports that the evidence has been thorough and far reaching. Every individual supposed to possess information, either trivial or important, has been called before the court. Ex-Pay Inspector Spalding listened to all the evidence but submitted no statement of his own. On several occasions he propounded inquiries to clear up matters needing explanation. It is believed that the total amount of bogus certificates issued by Pinney was $950,000 at least. Certificates purporting to be good for that sum are held by a well known detective. The statement that Spalding signed all the certificates in blank and left them to be filled in by Pinney was not clearly corroborated. Some of the certificates bear evidence of having been signed after the body was filled out. No outsider has access to the pages of testimony. Members of the court refuse to impart information respecting the details of the evidence, yet there is ample cause for believing the testimony is of a very damaging character and must in itself, without any recommendation of the court, suggest the calling of a court martial in Spalding's case.

Mayor pro tem.

Dr George Hewston, the newly elected Mayor pro tem, qualified and took the necessary oath of office this morning. His bond, in the sum of $15,000, was filed in the office of the county recorder, with M. Morganthau and J. Pope as sureties. It was mentioned at the city hall, this afternoon, that it was probable Dr. Hewston would appoint J. C. Roberts, incoming supervisor for the tenth district, to supply the vacancy occasioned by his resignation, in order to prevent the appointment by partisans of his competitors.

Rumored Resignation.

It has been currently rumored during the last two or three days that Louis M. Foulke, supervisor of internal revenue for the Pacific coast, has sent in his resignation, preferring to retire from service rather than submit to removal to another section of country. The rumor has no foundation in fact. Foulke has neither sent in his resignation nor does he at present contemplate doing so.

Earthquake.

GONZALES, Cal., Nov. 7.—About 9 50 this morning there was a shock of earthquake that lasted three seconds.

HOLLISTER, Cal., Nov. 7.—The heaviest shock of earthquake ever felt in this vicinity visited us this morning at 10 o'clock, lasting fully twenty seconds. It was forewarned by a harsh rumbling noise, and commenced very slight, gradually increasing until it brought up with a severe shock, then as gradually decreasing, vibrating east and west. Many of the inhabitants were frightened and rushed into the streets, presenting a horrified appearance. Many clocks were stopped, goods shaken from shelves in stores, and brick buildings cracked, although no serious damage was done. This is the second shock experienced here within the last three months which was not felt at any other place on the coast.

Rain commenced falling about 5 P. M. yesterday and continued all night. This morning the weather is cloudy and looks like we would have more rain.

The health of the chief justice is improving, and he may be able to sit on the bench next week. Meanwhile Brigham remains a prisoner at his house, with improving health.

LETTER FROM OLYMPIA.

OLYMPIA, Nov. 5, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

As the rainy season seems to have set in in good earnest, the members of the Legislative Assembly have about come to the conclusion to endure it by holding afternoon sessions, and finish up their accumulated business.

Yesterday a bill was introduced, appropriating $500 for the relief of Mr. Frank Clark, for preparing and compiling certain laws last session, but the House being utterly opposed to the granting of appropriations, unless good cause was shown, the bill was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Ferguson introduced H. B. 136, for the creation of the office of Immigration Commissioner, and providing for the printing and distribution of pamphlets relative to the resources of the Territory. The bill appropriates $500 for printing the pamphlets, and $150 yearly for postage and incidental expenses. The history of this matter, in brief, is as follows: Mrs. A. H. H. Stuart, of this city, anxious to create a feeling in favor of immigration to this Territory, and for the purpose of furnishing information regarding this part of the Pacific Coast, at considerable trouble and expense to herself carried on a correspondence on the subject with the leading citizens of the Territory and also with the residents of other Territories and States, by means of which a vast amount of information was furnished, of incalculable worth to immigrants arriving in this part of the country. Mrs. Stuart compiled this in book form, consisting of probably eighty pages, her sole object being to have it printed and distributed where it would do the most good, and for the purpose of aiding her in this meritorious work, she asks an appropriation, as above stated. The bill passed the House, and is now in the hands of a Council committee for consideration.

The bill for the better observance of Sunday has passed the House, after being amended to include the closing of barber shops after 10 A. M. on Sundays.

The afternoon session of yesterday was principally taken up in the consideration of a road law in committee of the whole. The committee, after sitting two hours, rose, and reported the bill back to the House as amended.

To day Mr. Shinn introduced a bill in relation to the compensation of certain officers in Columbia county, which was referred to the committee on counties. The bill provides for paying the probate judge $300, treasurer $300, auditor $600, commissioners and assessors $4 per day.

A H J R. was adopted for the appointment of a joint committee, to take up the matter of the insane asylum, and report back by bill at the earliest possible moment. The resolution passed the House, but was not reached by the Council before adjournment.

Petitions were presented from residents of Pacific and Klikitat counties, with regard to the county seats of their respective counties.

Bills were also introduced relative to treasurers and assessors, which were referred.

H B 62, to amend an act relative to proceedings and parties in civil actions, was discussed this afternoon, at considerable length and passed.

I regret to say that Messrs. Harmon and Harris are confined to their rooms by illness.

The Standard has the best reason to know that the route of the projected Canadian overland railway has been established. Bute Inlet to Fort George via the west branch of the Homathco river, across the Chilcoaten Plains, thence to the Tete Jaune Cache Pass in the Rocky mountains is the route chosen. We hear that a better line has been discovered than was afforded the Central Pacific railway to California.

Mr. Hunter's railway division, running south from Nanaimo, have located about 21 miles of the island line. The work is represented as being very heavy as a rule. Mr. Harris' party, which commenced work at Esquimalt, have arrived at a point near to Sayward's mill, Cowichan. It will be probably six weeks before the two parties shall have joined lines. On the mainland the several parties have been pushing along the work steadily. Mr. Gamsby's division located about 40 miles from Bute Inlet towards the Chilcoaten Plains. Cambies corps completed about 70 miles during the season, crossing the Chilcoaten Plains from Mr. Gamsby's survey towards Fort George on the Fraser river.

MONDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 8 1875.

THE KING OF THE LOBBY WANTS A TRIAL

People were led by circumstances connected with the Pacific Mail investigations last winter to suspect that Hon Wm S King congressman elect from the State of Minnesota, was a man not altogether above reproach Indeed it came to be generally believed if one may judge the general belief of the public by what one sees in the papers and other supposed reflections of common sentiment that Mr King, two years before while Postmaster of the National House of Representatives had received a large amount for his assistance in lobbying the Pacific Mail subsidy through Congress, and had placed other large amounts "where they would do the most good" that is on the upturned palms of divers members of the said congress who had the high privilege of a vote on the said subsidy bill And the grand jury of the criminal court of the District of Columbia likewise imbibed that idea concerning Mr. King, and became so far possessed by it that they actually presented an indictment against, charging if we recollect aright not only that he was guilty of the acts above mentioned but that in being examined upon his corporal oath touching the same transactions he made statements which indicated a want of proper reverence for the statutes relative to false swearing

It is pleasant to be able now to record a fact which shows not only that Mr King is not the wicked person he has been supposed to be but is in fact a man of the most delicate sense of honor This important fact is, that he demands a speedy trial of the cases made against him by the said indictments, and declares his purpose not to offer his credentials as a member of the Congress to which he has been elected and which will convene in about three weeks from the date of these presents until he shall have been acquitted of the grave accusations. If he were not wholly innocent he would not make this perilous demand for a trial If anybody is cynical enough to entertain an idea that the absence of ex Congressman Shumaker and Richard B Irwin has anything to do with the urgency of the demand, they being the strongest witnesses against him, and both in Europe and beyond the reach of a subpoena from the court, all we have to say is that such persons must be naturally inclined to think evil of their fellow men, or else they must be controlled by a narrow prejudice. And if there are any who venture the unworthy suggestion that Mr King can well afford to stand upon his high sense of honor and refrain from presenting his credentials while these indictments are pending, because the House would not be likely to give them a very favorable consideration, we have no word for such hopeless carpers Hon Wm S King—"Bill King" no longer—is vindicated, and the whole race of Pecksniffs will not be able to sneeze him down

A SINGULAR MESSAGE

The Paris Echo recently contained a statement that the Bonapartists had sent several agents to St Petersburg for the purpose of representing, in the name of Gen Fleury, French ambassador to Russia during the Empire that the restoration of the Empire is imminent An observer standing on the outside does not perceive much evidence that such an event is in the near future It is true, the Bonapartists made something of a demonstration a short time since in the south of France but it is true also that the state of public feeling against the proceedings was such that the programme previously concerted was abandoned to avoid a collision with the people That may indicate a speedy reinstatement of imperialism, but if so it is another proof that French politics are incomprehensible to all who reason upon public affairs by the ordinary logic of sequences Another circumstance which, but for the system of contradictions which appears to guide the course of events in France, would argue exactly the opposite of the conclusions adopted by the Imperialists, is the step taken just before the adjournment of the National Assembly for extending and popularizing education. The law at which this measure struck with most direct effect was the law established by the late Emperor placing the educational institutions of the country under the immediate supervision of the government This centralized system was abolished as one of the very last acts of the Assembly, and the establishment of advanced schools,—they call them Universities—by any person or association at their own will was authorized Under this law four new Universities have been established independent of the Government and nine others are contemplated to be in operation by the first of January Of course, these schools can never supply the educational wants of a self governing people —never serve the purpose of a system of rudimentary schools for the masses such as we have in this country—but they will aid much in popularizing and liberalizing intelligence and will hardly be found very powerful auxiliaries to the imperial cause

The following extract from a characteristic letter from John G Whittier to Hon Elizur Wright is published "I notice in the papers thy announcement as a candidate for the State Senate. I am glad of it and hope the people of thy district will have the good sense to vote for thee, irrespective of party We need brains sadly in that branch of the government and a sharp-eyed brave and honest man to look after the Rings and protect the people from frauds will not be amiss. Aside from all this I confess I should like to see one of the old abolition leaders in the Senate of Massachusetts where the eleventh hour men have hitherto been conspicuous"

The losses in the depreciation of mining stocks in consequence of the Virginia fire are estimated at $36 000 000 Of course there was no such an amount of mining property destroyed and this loss is more than nine tenths merely a breaking down of speculative values The first time stocks take a spasm the other way there will be gains to the amount of $36,000 000 and still there will not be a dollar of actual value added to the mines

Hayes majority over Allen for Governor of Ohio finally is [illegible]

This time it is Judge Robert W Hughes of Virginia, who writes on the financial question, in the course of the discussion of which he says Until lately I had supposed that both the South and North had had enough of inflation to make them avoid it for many generations At the South it overthrew all our banks insurance companies and moneyed corporations and destroyed all our stocks of every kind In this and other ways it cost us the loss of more capital than the abolition of slavery itself All our securities representing the surplus wealth of the richest people per capita in the world which were the accumulation of long years of prosperity, passed into the form of Confederate money and became worthless It brought us, before the end to a state of barter which, in respect to finance is a state of barbarism and thus it became almost literally true that a Richmond housekeeper going to market in the morning could take his money in a basket and bring home what is purchased in his pocket.'

Of late the dispatches have made frequent mention of a controversy between the Pope and the Spanish Government the latter urging upon a modification of the concordat of 1851 and the former insisting upon its strict enforcement. The clause of which a modification is asked reads as follows

> The Catholic Apostolic Roman religion which to the exclusion of every other creed continues to be the sole religion of the Spanish nation shall always be maintained in the States of her Catholic Majesty with all the rights and prerogatives which it ought to possess according to the law of God and the clauses of the Holy Canons

Alfonso would perhaps be willing to accede to the demand of the Vatican but his ministry believe the interest of the Government requires the toleration of other religions than that of the Catholic church

Reverdy Johnson being unable to accept an invitation to be present at the recent meeting in Philadelphia for inspecting the preparations for the Centennial celebration wrote the committee as follows. "Glorious as was the day which is about to be commemorated the period at which such commemoration is to take place is hardly less glorious From three millions of people we now number forty millions, and we are at present in a state of perfect peace all sectional difficulties having subsided, and the cause which chiefly produced them permanently extinguished The whole land is free the forms of government under which we live if honestly observed are the best that human wisdom ever devised, and are certain to secure to us and to our descendants all the blessings political and individual that governments can secure

The Pittsburgh Gazette is of opinion that the time has come for the United States to intervene and stop the further effusion of blood in Cuba It does not explain just how the effusion would be stopped by our interfering Perhaps the way to staunch the bleeding is for Uncle Sam to take up arms against Spain in behalf of the Cuban banditti but we are unable to see it in that light It can hardly be assumed with safety that Spain would retire at once from the contest, if the United States intervened The chances are that greater and not less bloodshed would be the result of intervention by our Government.

An English paper is responsible for the statement that about a month ago a veteran of the battle of Waterloo and his aged widow were buried together in one grave in the church yard of Newton Ferrass South Devon The husband John Babbage, as a private in the Coldstream Guards was engaged in many of the stirring events of the great French war At Waterloo he received a serious wound and wore a silver plate in his skull during the last sixty years of his life He died at the age of eighty five years and his wife aged eighty seven died the next day

It is reported that repeated acts of vandalism have recently occurred in Westminster Abbey The monument erected to Sir John Franklin has been defaced, and the head of Major Andre, of Revolutionary War fame has been thrice destroyed from his tomb The perpetrators of these acts not having been discovered the crime is as usual laid at the door of American visitors

The Sunday Welcome sees in the election of Samuel J Tilden evidence of a healthy state of public sentiment in New York which observation certainly indicates a healthy degree of intelligence in the Welcome as Tilden was not a candidate for re-election, and there was no election of Governor in New York this year

I was obliged to have the third coat put on to make it look as if it had been really painted and even then I think one good coat of Lead Paint would have given the house a better appearance I think you ought to make up to me the loss I sustained besides the annoyance I felt knowing that an inferior article had been put on when a No 1 article had been promised Hoping to hear from you soon on the subject. To whom it may concern Seeing in various papers that the California Chemical Paint Company continue to deceive people by saying that the Averill paint will neither peel crack nor chalk off I deem it my duty to say that my house painted with the above named paint in the fall of 1873 failed in less than eighteen months after being painted by peeling cracking and chalking off in the worst manner imaginable I also observe that the company have my name in their printed matter as reference this was done without my knowledge or consent

CITY.

DISCHARGED FOR WANT OF EVIDENCE.—In Saturday's issue we made mention of the arrest of a young gentleman named George H Crawford, late of Salem on the authority of a telegram from Sheriff Shaw of Marion county, to Chief Lappeus No warrant was issued and Mr Crawford rather than remain in jail here and wait for a warrant to be issued from Salem, proposed to accompany Officer McCoy who made the arrest on the afternoon express train. This was done and on arriving at Salem, Mr Crawford was taken before Justice H A Johnson for examination On being brought into court, the defendant was almost immediately discharged there appearing no evidence whatever to substantiate the charge It was declared to be "a mistake" and Mr Crawford was told that he was discharged So far as we have been able to ascertain the whole proceedings emanated from malicious motives on the part of some persons unfriendly disposed toward Mr Crawford We submit that it is a great hardship to the defendant to be charged with a felony, subjected to the indignity of arrest, to say nothing of the expense and delay and all on an accusation entirely unsupported by testimony Such appears to be the case with Mr Crawford as he was discharged without going through the formality of an examination He returned to Portland on Saturday morning with Officer McCoy, and will proceed to San Francisco on the next steamer We are informed that Mr Crawford intends instituting proceedings for damages against the persons who procured his arrest.

[illegible] CAUGHT—Saturday evening a man was seen running up First street followed by several persons who were crying out "stop thief." Attracted by the noise, a crowd joined eagerly in the chase As the crowd increased in numbers, the fellow accelerated his speed and was soon putting in his best licks. Hearing the shouts and seeing the man running a young man named Barrett stepped out from a door and laid his digits on the fleeing individual The fellow turned about and gave Barrett a most unceremonious punch in the face which sent him sprawling on the sidewalk Meantime several others stepped up and on attempting to arrest the supposed thief, shared the same fate as Barrett. Finally an officer took the track and soon arrested the man and took him off to jail When taken to the jail the man gave his name as Wellington He seemed perfectly calm, and no one appeared at the jail to accuse him of larceny, notwithstanding some persons were calling out "stop thief" and [illegible] him Young Barrett entered the jail a few minutes after Wellington was brought there, and entered a complaint against the former, charging him with assault and battery. The case will be examined into this morning

PASSENGERS COMING—The following passengers are on board the steamer Ajax which sailed from San Francisco for Portland Saturday forenoon: Hon L D Shroyer J C Ainsworth and wife, Col R Jones U S A Gen. John Adair, Rev J F Knowles S G Alexander, A. VanDusen I Heath J O Neil Dr. Gibson W R Barr T H Crawford, and wife, Miss C Burk, I F Colbreath W P [illegible] Gowder W J Hardy J C Ran[illegible] W. Burnham, E Stubbs C. Dolph H [illegible] H Upham, J M Strowbridge, A [illegible], Mrs, E C Woodcock and child [illegible] Mauser F M Carty Geo Brown [illegible] baum, J Hocking, B Williams, W [illegible] family, H Smith and family, Geo [illegible] and wife, J A Dodge and family J I Stevens and family J Eddings L M [illegible] and family, Mrs M Hyde and child, Mrs [illegible] Mrs. Atkins, Mrs C C Hall and child, Mrs C Morley and child Miss L [illegible] Mrs D Grothgan and 2 children Miss [illegible] F Dueber and wife H S Parkhurst and Pennsylvania Colonists

INSANE.—A man who gave his name as N G Smith was arrested Saturday afternoon and taken to the city jail Smith had a black valise filled with sundry articles of clothing which he was carrying about through the town. He also had a rope, a red flannel shirt and a pair of woolen hose hanging over his arm. Smith has been, it appears, in the habit of calling at residences about the city and by his strange and insane conduct frightening the inmates. While wandering through the city he would frequently place his valise down in the middle of the street and circle it several times muttering to himself Since he has been placed in jail he talks and whistles by turns and gives unmistakable symptoms of insanity. We understand Smith was confined to the asylum for a few months, and that he has recently been released from that institution He will be examined to-day before the proper authorities and will doubtless be committed to the asylum.

THE BARK BLANCHE.—Says the Colonist of the 3d: "The bark Blanche, Capt Bambrough with a cargo of grain from Portland was brought into Esquimalt yesterday by the tug Beaver, in a disabled condition It appears that during the heavy gale a few days back being then off the mouth of the Columbia river a part of the cargo shifted and threw the vessel on her beam ends. In order to right her the crew were forced to cut away the main and mizzen topmasts, and in this condition she was picked up in the Straits yesterday morning. Capt Bambrough reports seeing another bark apparently in distress during the gale. She was heavily laden and remained in sight for nearly two hours during the worst of the blow, but the Blanche was unable to communicate with her, and cannot tell exactly when or how she disappeared This vessel is supposed to be one of the steel rail ships now overdue from Liverpool"

MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE —To-day in the district court which is in session at Vancouver the case of John Hugill who is indicted for the murder of Lewis Miller will come up for trial. Hugill is a nephew of deceased and during a family quarrel which occurred some weeks ago near Kalama he snatched a shot gun from the hands of a man named Burk and discharging the contents at his uncle killed him instantly Burk it seems, is regarded as an accomplice and has been jointly indicted by the grand jury with Hugill for murder in the first degree. Messrs Gibbs and Caples of this city have been employed to defend the parties. The case is an important one, and much interest will be felt during the trial. Hugill and Burk we are informed have heretofore borne good characters for peace and quiet.

SENTENCED —Last Saturday afternoon in the State circuit court, Judge Shattuck overruled the motion for a new trial filed by the attorney of Willie Reynard and proceeded to sentence all four of these boys—Geo. Conner Chas. Carroll, Willie Reynard and John Dougherty—to the penitentiary After administering some fatherly advice to these youthful offenders Judge Shattuck sentenced each to imprisonment in the State penitentiary for the period of three years We suppose that these boys will be sent temporarily to the penitentiary or confined in the county jail until our citizens shall have prepared some place where they can be kept.

WOMAN'S ASSOCIATION —We learn from the last number of the Churchman that at a meeting of the "Woman's Association of St Stephen's Chapel, held October 5th at the house of Mrs Boyd the following resolution was passed unanimously Resolved That this association pay the bishop or his appointed agent, the sum of $10 per month for the maintenance of one orphan in the orphanage until such times as the said grant shall be revoked by the association" The president issued an order to the treasurer to carry out the above resolution

ARM FRACTURED —A few days ago a little daughter of Mr John O Neil who resides at Thirteenth and H streets had her arm broken The little girl who is about seven years of age, was attempting to take her younger sister down from a chair and losing her balance fell, thus sustaining the injury The broken limb was set and she is now recovering rapidly

THE SONG SERVICE.—An immense audience greeted the McGibeny Family at their Song Service last evening The programme was excellent and received by the large audience in a most sympathetic spirit Each of the children received their meed of praise but little Allie has become the little "Queen of Hearts" The beautiful composition of Prof Bray "Mother has gone to live with angels so sympathetically sung by his little daughter is worthy of special mention The address of Rev T L Eliot, on The Wreckers of Society was indeed a gem and won for him a warm place in the hearts of many hitherto strangers to that modest earnest worker for the welfare of this city The earnestly attentive audience gave evidence of their hearty appreciation of this effort of boiling down —condensing a full hour's discussion into a ten minutes address If there is truth in the adage nothing succeeds like success these song services certainly promise to become one of Portland's permanent institutions

HELD TO ANSWER —Col D Evans Wells Fargo & Co's agent in this city received a dispatch from H C Paige on Saturday to the effect that the persons who were arrested some days ago on suspicion of being the highwaymen who robbed the stage a few days since near Umatilla have been examined and that they were held to answer the charge in the sum of $2 250 each As the persons will scarcely be able to furnish the necessary bonds for their appearance, they may soon be expected to arrive in this city to await the action of the grand jury in the U S district court

GIVEN AWAY —During the heavy and protracted rain storm on Friday night, the foundation of a portion of the sidewalk on the south side of Stark street, between Front and First, was washed away The outer edge of the sidewalk has sunk down several feet and remains in that condition To warn pedestrians of its dangerous condition a temporary rail has been placed across the sidewalk As that side of the street is one of the principal thoroughfares of the city the walk should be repaired without delay, before some person is crippled

BUSINESS MEETING —Members of the Taylor Street Church Literary Society will meet at a private residence this evening at 7 o clock sharp Important business on the tapis and a full attendance desired

BOOKS AS A MEDICINE

[From the Philadelphia Times]

The beauteous days through which we are passing have a counterpart in nights that are equally bewitching the former to be devoted to the delighting of the senses the latter to be given up to the enrichment of the intellect To exist simply is to enjoy the first to be profited by the last one must be wise and willing The day is satisfying enough as we find it filled with the placid glory of earth and sky bracing with cooling winds, genial with mellow sunshine It comes on with sharp frosts and brilliant sunsets [illegible] of summer splendor and [illegible] twilight is gray with melancholy We regret each day, yet arrived upon its threshold we welcome every evening the cheerful [illegible] of its firesides its pleasant household communion, its social privileges and [illegible] study and never lapsing into the [illegible] circle of slumber Various indeed are the employments in which these precious evenings may be wisely passed for there is wisdom as well as pleasure in all the simple diversions that brighten the home and make it joyous to the occupants and they commit a grave error who would regulate the step of innocent youth and contented age to the pace of a funeral train But of all these there is none to supply the place of books These in their multiplicity fulfill all desires, quench all thirsts feed all appetites Their entertainment is constant their cost trifling, their benefit co extensive with the memory As a moral physician we should prescribe for the disorders which this or that fond parent remarks in his boy a brain wash of books to be taken hourly between supper and bedtime It is very much more effective than morning cocktails precisely as the ounce of prevention outvalues the pound of cure But books like all medicines should be taken with discretion We should fear for the patient who consumed Ned Buntline and Shakespeare in equal proportions, and we should despair of one who interpreted literature as chiefly the stories of Mrs Southworth For the same reasons we should expect much of youth spent in the society of such books as Hawthorne wrote and in the study of the greater master works of our language A century ago it was the case that most men who read were scholars, since books were rare and trash seldom found a publisher Now however thought having become largely merchandise many who are readers are in no sense scholars It is therefore of the utmost importance that youth should not be left to read at random but should have accurate information as to what is worth attention and what had best be omitted Parents can do no wiser thing towards assuring the future of their children than to provide them with good books, "good," not in the sense in which the word is applied to the trash that is frequently collated in Sunday school libraries but good in their information, style, and power to entertain Than this we may be reasonably sure there is no better or easier method of keeping young men—and some young women, too—within the influence of the family and away from the evil associations of the street and club And it is worthy of remark that few tastes are so readily acquired as that for reading while none is alike so cheaply indulged and so quickly remunerative

GOLD AND SILVER IN MINNESOTA —The following extract is from the Ontonagon (Mich) Miner, of Oct 16

A new discovery is reported on the north shore in American territory it being a series of ancient pits or diggings on a gold and silver bearing vein, specimens from which go $4 000 to the ton The discoverer William Spalding formerly of Sault Ste Marie and of the Pennsylvania mine in Keweenaw county claims that he found in the ancient pits [illegible] per [illegible] of the [illegible] of copper [illegible] If this is correct it is an important discovery, as nothing of the kind to indicate ancient mining has heretofore been found on the north shore

The other day says an exchange Sam Bowles went to church in Springfield Mass and feeling the effect of his severe editorial labors during the week fell to napping By and by he was awakened by the preacher who struck the desk and shouted "Who shall be able to stand up in the presence of the Lord on that day?" And Sam Bowles rising in his pew remarked Charles Francis Adams is the only man that can do it and I nominate him for the position

MORNING, NOVEMBER 8, 1875.

CITY.

DISCHARGED FOR WANT OF EVIDENCE.—In Saturday's issue we made mention of the arrest of a young gentleman named George E. Crawford, late of Salem, on the authority of a telegram from Sheriff Shaw, of Marion county, to Chief Lappeus. No warrant was issued, and Mr. Crawford, rather than remain in jail [illegible] wait for a warrant to be issued from Salem, proposed to accompany Officer McCoy, who made the arrest, on the afternoon express train. This was done, and on arriving at Salem Mr. Crawford was taken before Justice H. A. Johnson for examination. On being brought into court, the defendant was almost immediately discharged, there appearing no evidence whatever to substantiate the charge. It was declared to be "a mistake," and Mr. Crawford was told that he was discharged. So far as we have been able to ascertain, the whole proceedings emanated from malicious motives on the part of some persons unfriendly disposed toward Mr. Crawford. We submit that it is a great hardship to the defendant to be charged with a felony, subjected to the indignity of arrest, to say nothing of the expense and delay, and all on an accusation entirely unsupported by testimony. Such appears to be the case with Mr. Crawford, as he was discharged without going through the formality of an examination. He returned to Portland on Saturday morning with officer McCoy, and will proceed to San Francisco on the next steamer. We are informed that Mr. Crawford intends instituting proceedings for damages against the persons who procured his arrest.

[illegible] AND CAUGHT.—Saturday evening a [illegible] running up First street followed by several persons who were crying out "stop thief." Attracted by the noise, a crowd joined eagerly in the chase. As the crowd increased in numbers, the fellow accelerated his speed and was soon putting in his "best licks." Hearing the shouts and seeing the [illegible] running a young man named Barrett stepped out from a door and laid his digits on the fleeing individual. The fellow turned about and gave Barrett a most unceremonious punch in the face which sent him sprawling on the sidewalk. Meantime several others arrived and on attempting to arrest the supposed thief shared the same fate as Barrett. After a while an officer took the track and soon [illegible] the man and took him off to jail. When taken to the jail the man gave his name as Wellington. He seemed perfectly sober, and no one appeared at the jail to accuse him of larceny, notwithstanding some persons were calling out "stop thief," and pursuing him. Young Barrett entered the jail a few minutes after Wellington was brought there, and entered a complaint against the former, charging him with assault and battery. The case will be examined into this morning.

PASSENGERS COMING.—The following passengers are on board the steamer Ajax which sailed from San Francisco for Portland, Saturday forenoon: Hon. L. D. Shroyer, J. C. Ainsworth and wife, Col. R. Jones, U. S. A., Gen. John Adair, Rev. J. H. Knowles, S. G. Alexander, A. VanDusen, T. Heath, J. O'Neil, Dr. Gibson, W. B. Barr, T. H. Crawford and wife, Miss C. Burk, I. F. Colbreath, W. P. [illegible], M. Gowder, W. J. Hardy, J. C. Ran[illegible], [illegible], E. Stubbs, C. Dolph, H. [illegible], H. Upharn, J. M. Strowbridge, A. [illegible], Mrs. E. C. Woodcock and child, [illegible] Mercer, F. M. Carty, Geo. Brown, [illegible], J. Hocking, B. Williams, W. [illegible] and family, H. Smith and family, Geo. [illegible] and wife, J. A. Dodge and family, [illegible] and family, J. Eddings, L. M. [illegible] family, Mrs. M. Hyde and child, Mrs. [illegible], Mrs. Alkins, Mrs. C. C. Hall and [illegible], Mrs. C. Morley and child, Miss L. [illegible], Mrs. D. Grothgan and 2 children, Miss [illegible], P. Dubber and wife, H. S. Parker and Pennsylvania Colonists.

INSANE.—A man who gave his name as N. Smith was arrested Saturday afternoon and [illegible] to the city jail. Smith had a black valise [illegible] with sundry articles of clothing, which he was carrying about through the [illegible]. He also had a rope, a red flannel shirt and a pair of woolen hose hanging over his arm. Smith has been, it appears, in the habit of calling at residences about the city, and by his [illegible] and insane conduct frightening the inmates. While wandering through the streets he would frequently place his valise down in the middle of the street, and circle [illegible] several times, muttering to himself. Since he has been placed in jail he talks, [illegible] and gives unmistakable symptoms of insanity. We understand that Smith was confined to the asylum [illegible] and that he has recently been [illegible] from that institution. He will be [illegible] to-day before the proper authorities, and will doubtless be committed to the asylum.

THE BARK BLANCHE.—Says the Colonist of the [illegible]: "The bark Blanche, Capt. Bambrough, with a cargo of grain from Portland, was brought into Esquimalt yesterday by the tug Beaver, in a disabled condition. It appears that during the heavy gale a few days back, being then off the mouth of the Columbia river, part of the cargo shifted and threw the vessel on her beam ends. In order to right her they were forced to cut away the main and mizzen topmasts, and in this condition she was picked up in the Straits yesterday [illegible]. Capt. Bambrough reports seeing another bark, apparently in distress, during the gale. She was heavily [illegible] and remained in sight for nearly two hours during the worst of the blow; but the Blanche was unable to communicate with her, and cannot tell exactly when or how she disappeared. This vessel is [illegible] to be one of the steel-rail ships now overdue from Liverpool."

MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE.—To-day in the district court which is in session at Vancouver, the case of John Hugill, who is indicted for the murder of Lewis Miller, will come up for trial. Hugill is a nephew of deceased, and during a family quarrel which occurred some weeks ago near Kalama, he snatched a shotgun from the hands of a man named Burk, and discharging the contents at his uncle killed him instantly. Burk, it seems, is regarded as an accomplice, and has been jointly [illegible] by the grand jury with Hugill for murder in the first degree. Messrs. Gibbs and Copley of this city have been employed to defend the parties. The case is an important one, and much interest will be felt during the trial. Hugill and Burk, we are informed, have heretofore borne good characters for peace and quiet.

SENTENCED.—Last Saturday afternoon, in the State circuit court, Judge Shattuck overruled the motion for a new trial filed by the attorney of Willis Raynard, and proceeded to sentence all four of these boys—Geo. Connor, Chas. Carroll, Willis Reynard and John Dougherty—to the penitentiary. After administering some fatherly advice to these youthful offenders, Judge Shattuck sentenced each to imprisonment in the State penitentiary for the period of three years. We suppose that these boys will be sent temporarily to the [illegible] or confined in the county jail until our citizens shall have prepared some place where they can be kept.

WOMAN'S ASSOCIATION.—We learn from the [illegible] of the Churchman that at a meeting of the "Woman's Association" of St. Stephen's Chapel, held October 5th, at the house of Mrs. Boyd, the following resolution was passed unanimously: Resolved, "That this [illegible] pay the bishop, or his appointed agent, the sum of $10 per month for the maintenance of one orphan in the orphanage, until such times as the said grant shall be revoked by the association." The president issued an order to the treasurer to carry out the above resolution.

ARM FRACTURED.—A few days ago a little daughter of Mr. John O'Neil, who resides at Thirteenth and H streets, had her arm broken. The little girl, who is about seven years of age, was attempting to take her younger sister down from a chair, and, losing her balance, fell, thus sustaining the injury. The broken limb was set and she is now recovering rapidly.

WEATHER REPORT.—From the records of the U. S. Signal Station of Observation, Portland, Oregon, November 7, 1875:

	7 A. M.	2 P. M.	9. P. M.
Thermometer	50°	53°	48°
Wind, direction	S.	C.	E.
Wind, velocity	4	0	1
Weather	Foggy	Fair.	Hazy.

THE SONG SERVICE.—An immense audience greeted the McGibeny Family at their Song Service last evening. The programme was excellent, and received by the large audience in a most sympathetic spirit. Each of the children received their meed of praise, but little Allie has become the little "Queen of Hearts." The beautiful composition of Prof. Bray, "Mother has gone to live with angels," so sympathetically sung by his little daughter, is worthy of special mention. The address of Rev. T. L. Eliot, on The Wreckers of Society, was indeed a gem, and won for him a warm place in the hearts of many hitherto strangers to that modest, earnest worker for the welfare of this city. The earnestly attentive audience gave evidence of their hearty appreciation of this effort of "boiling down"—condensing a full hour's discussion into a ten minutes address. If there is truth in the adage "nothing succeeds like success," these song services certainly promise to become one of Portland's permanent institutions.

HELD TO ANSWER.—Col. D. Evans, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s agent in this city, received a dispatch from H. C. Paige, on Saturday, to the effect that the persons who were arrested some days ago on suspicion of being the highwaymen who robbed the stage a few days since near Umatilla have been examined, and that they were held to answer the charge in the sum of $2,250 each. As the persons will scarcely be able to furnish the necessary bonds for their appearance, they may soon be expected to arrive in this city to await the action of the grand jury in the U. S. district court.

GIVEN AWAY.—During the heavy and protracted rain storm on Friday night, the foundation of a portion of the sidewalk on the south side of Stark street, between Front and First, was washed away. The outer edge of the sidewalk has sunk down several feet and remains in that condition. To warn pedestrians of its dangerous condition, a temporary rail has been placed across the sidewalk. As that side of the street is one of the principal thoroughfares of the city, the walk should be repaired without delay, before some person is crippled.

BUSINESS MEETING.—Members of the Taylor Street Church Literary Society will meet at a private residence this evening at 7 o'clock sharp. Important business on the tapis, and a full attendance desired.

MONTHLY MEETING.—There will be a regular monthly meeting of the members of the Young Men's Christian Association, at the rooms, this evening, at 7 o'clock.

MINISTERIAL MEETING.—A special meeting of ministers of this city and vicinity will be held at the residence of Rev. R. Bentley, next door to the Taylor street Methodist church, to-day at 2 P. M.

BRIEF NOTES.

Hotels are crowded.

A great many cripples are now in the city.

U. S. circuit court will convene this morning.

Dog "pizeners" are said to be around. Look well to your favorite canines.

Mr. P. B. Sinnott, of the Grand Ronde Indian Reservation, is in the city.

A large letter and paper mail may be anticipated from the south this evening.

No more election returns received. Eight counties to be heard from officially.

The steamer City of Salem is announced to leave for Corvallis to-morrow at 5:30 A. M.

This evening the Philomathean Literary Society will discuss the "Third Term" question.

Swinging over gates promises to become a popular amusement among young people again.

Louis Pillsbury was conveyed to Salem on Saturday morning in custody of Sheriff Jeffery.

The funeral of the late Charles A. Backestos was very numerously attended yesterday afternoon.

It takes just one hour and thirty-two and a half minutes to walk thirty-seven times around a block.

An East Portland dog has the veritable chills and fever—so says a cotemporary. The statement is rather "gauzy."

Mr. C. B. Upton is just recovering from injuries and a broken arm, sustained by being thrown from a coach some time ago.

Capt. W. P. Gray, of Astoria, has accepted a position on one of the Upper Wallamet boats, and has removed to East Portland.

Two express wagons collided on Saturday. Result: one driver thrown out and slightly injured, and a couple of demoralized vehicles.

Miss Lizzie Sellwood, daughter of Rev. Mr. Sellwood, of East Portland, who has been lying seriously ill, is, we are pleased to announce, slowly convalescing.

Capt. Fred. Wilson is now in command of the W. R. T. Co.'s steamer Beaver, which is running between Portland and Astoria in place of the Willamette Chief.

The missionary concert given yesterday afternoon at the Taylor-street church was largely attended. A very interesting and profitable programme was rendered.

Friday evening G. Neimeyer, D. D. G. A., of Concordia Grove No. 1, U. A. O. D., installed the following officers: Charles Geyer, N. A.; L. Gassner, V. A.; Wm. Mast, R. S.; G. Neimeyer, T.; F. Eilers, I. G.

Mr. J. H. Fairchild, who has been Indian Agent at Siletz Reservation so long, and who has performed his duties in a very satisfactory manner, has resigned, and intends moving with his family to California.

Our attention was called to the actions of several young fellows in front of one of the churches last evening. Their conduct was unbecoming in the presence of ladies, and if we observe it again we shall be obliged to give names, which will be quite unpleasant to the young men.

AMUSEMENTS.

SELECT READINGS.—Miss Imogene Holbrook will make her debut this evening, at Masonic Hall, on which occasion she will give a number of readings—prose and poetical. As before stated, the fair young stranger comes to us bearing from the press and public the highest encomiums of merit. From what these sources of criticism have been induced to say in behalf of Miss Holbrook's superior merits as a reader, we are inclined to form an exalted opinion of her as an elocutionist. The selections presented this evening are as follows: Idyl of Battle Hollow," Bret Harte; "The Curfew," Anonymous; "Irish Woman's Letter," Anonymous; "Letter Scene from Macbeth;" "Darius Green and His Flying Machine," Trowbridge; "Baron's Last Banquet," Green; "Marc Antony's Oration;" "Aunt Tabitha," Holmes; "The Maniac," Lewis. Prof. Bray and his excellent orchestra will furnish appropriate music between the recitations. We hope to see a crowded house.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

The copartnership heretofore existing between C. H. Perkins and O. H. Kimball in the St. Charles Hotel has been dissolved, the latter gentleman retiring from the firm.

Neimeyer & Utler have something new in the way of a patent waterproof coat, for which they claim a great improvement over the rubber coat. It is warmer, being lined with wool, and does not emit any unpleasant smell when damp. Call and see them.

PERSONAL.

Capt. Charles Hopkins, U. S. Marshal of Washington Territory, gave us the pleasure of a call yesterday evening.

"Not selling at cost, but at exceedingly low prices," is the announcement made by Fishel & Roberts, the fashionable clothiers. This firm do just what they say, in every instance, and this should recommend them to all thoughtful persons.

Fabre & Barnes, of Central Market, have engaged additional assistance to wait upon their customers.

Begin the week with the purchase of the Esma Wrapper Pattern, corner Fourth and A streets.

LETTER FROM DANIEL CLARK, MASTER OF THE STATE GRANGE.

SALEM, Nov. 5, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Will you please say through your columns to the Patrons of Husbandry of this jurisdiction that Bro. Arthur Warner has resigned his office as State Agent, having given the most entire satisfaction to the executive committee, and that Bro. S. P. Lee has been chosen as his successor; that the State Agency in the future will be carried forward with the utmost vigor.

Since the late meeting of the State Grange the business of the agency has increased very rapidly, giving much encouragement for its future prosperity. The committee confidently hope that all true Patrons will concentrate their business there. All business communications in the future should be addressed to S. P. Lee, Portland, Oregon.

Also please announce that I shall start on Monday next, Nov. 8th, to attend the ninth annual meeting of the National Grange, at Louisville, Kentucky, to be absent about two months. During my absence Bro. S. W. Brown, of Vancouver, W. T., will act in my place as chairman of the executive committee, having been elected to that position. All business connected with that department will be under his supervision, and all communications will be addressed to him during my absence.

Other papers in this State will confer a favor to publish the above.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The annual ball season will soon be inaugurated.

The T. L. Society gave a party last week at the residence of Mrs. Calef. The members of that society propose soon to give a sociable.

We understand that a social society has recently been organized, composed entirely of newly married folks. How happy to be a Benedict.

On Friday evening a sociable was given in Odd Fellows' hall, East Portland, under the auspices of the ladies of the Ladies' Guild of St. David's Chapel. It is said to have been one of the most enjoyable sociables of the season. The literary exercises were excellent; and the music, vocal and instrumental, was rendered in fine style and highly appreciated by all present. The supper and refreshments were gotten up in good taste and served by several of East Portland's lovely belles. The net receipts were about $140.

A "run of logs," containing in the neighborhood of 800,000 feet, was lost in the McKenzie last week, caused by the sudden rise of the water. The owners had success in getting them down as far as the bridge on their way to Bromley's mill, when caught by the rise, making them, by two days, in time for a "big run."

WANTED.—In every city and county in California and Oregon, an active agent for the exclusive sale of a staple article in the grocery and drug line, of daily use in every family. A permanent and lucrative cash business. Energetic men can make $5,000 per annum. Address, enclosing stamp for answer, J. H. Burleson, 203 Greenwich street, New York City.

People will go where they can buy the cheapest. Then it is no wonder H. W. MONNASTES has such a run at his store. Housekeepers would do well to call and see his well assorted stock of Crockery and Glassware, Willow and Wooden Ware, Rodgers Brothers' Plated Ware, and a full line of House Furnishing Goods. Prices are such that our customers are well pleased. No. 129 First street, bet. Morrison and Yamhill.

Twenty thousand persons visited the State Fair, and the railroads and other modes of transportation were taxed to their utmost in carrying the immense outpouring of the people. A large proportion of these seekers for pleasure and profit visited the establishment of Beck & Waldman, First and Washington streets, for the express purpose of buying from the immense stock of clothing displayed to the gaze of the public. The prices seemed to please all. Youths' clothing is a specialty at this house.

G. W. Walling & Son, Willamette Nursery, Oswego, have established an office at the Grange Market, Front and Madison streets, where orders will be received for fruit trees.

The Elegant Establishment of JOS. KOHN, cor. of First and Morrison streets, has been literally stuffed with fall and winter goods, which they are disposing of at a lively rate for the reason that Kohn has made some excellent selections and what is more the prices are ranging exceedingly low. When you want anything to please you in clothing no better chance to find it is offered than at Kohn's. Be sure and call when you find it necessary to purchase.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

Thomas Peterson, drunk and disorderly: fined $5; in default sent below.

Sloan, for inebriety, was fined $5, a sum which he paid and was discharged.

A man named Geo. Furgison was found snoozing tranquilly on the sidewalk. He will subsist on prison diet for seven days.

Franklin, a hard customer, was picked up in a maudlin state, and in default of paying his fine was committed for three days.

Wm. Niblow, alias Buffalo Bill, for getting on a roaring drunk yesterday, was escorted to the city jail, and provided with quarters.

C. Young, for being gathered up drunk, was fined $5. Impecuniosity did not prevent his liquidating, and consequently he laughs at prison bolts and bars.

Last evening the following persons were arrested on a charge of gross drunkenness, and for conducting themselves disorderly: M. Shay and Harry Hastings.

Wong Sing, the Chinese Æsculapius who broke into his own shop one night last week, when it was locked up (its contents having been levied upon by a constable), was discharged.

BOOKS AS A MEDICINE.

[From the Philadelphia Times.]

The beauteous days through which we are passing have a counterpart in nights that are equally bewitching; the former to be devoted to the delighting of the senses, the latter to be given up to the enrichment of the intellect. To exist simply is to enjoy the first; to be profited by the last, one must be wise and willing. The day is satisfying enough as we find it; filled with the placid glory of earth and sky, bracing with cooling winds, genial with mellow sunshine. It comes on with sharp frosts and reluctant suns, ripens into noons of summer splendor, and wanes into twilights gray with melancholy. We regret each day; yet, arrived upon its threshold we welcome every evening, the cheerful radiance of its firesides, its pleasant household communions, its social privileges and hours of study and revery, lapsing into the still precincts of slumber. Various indeed are the employments in which these precious evenings may be wisely passed, for there is wisdom as well as pleasure in all the simple diversions that brighten the home and make it joyous to the occupants, and they commit a grave error who would regulate the step of innocent youth and contented age to the pace of a funeral train. But of all these there is none to supply the place of books. These, in their multiplicity, fulfill all desires, quench all thirsts, feed all appetites. Their entertainment is constant, their cost trifling, their benefit co-extensive with the memory. As a moral physician we should prescribe for the disorders which this or that fond parent remarks in his boy a brain-wash of books, to be taken hourly, between supper and bedtime. It is very much more effective than morning cocktails, precisely as the ounce of prevention outvalues the pound of cure. But books, like all medicines, should be taken with discretion. We should fear for the patient who consumed Ned Buntline and Shakespeare in equal proportions, and we should despair of one who interpreted literature as chiefly the stories of Mrs. Southworth. For the same reasons we should expect much of youth spent in the society of such books as Hawthorne wrote, and in the study of the greater master works of our language. A century ago it was the case that most men who read were scholars, since books were rare and trash seldom found a publisher. Now, however, thought having become largely merchandise, many who are readers are in no sense scholars. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance that youth should not be left to read at random, but should have accurate information as to what is worth attention and what had best be omitted. Parents can do no wiser thing towards assuring the future of their children than to provide them with good books; "good," not in the sense in which the word is applied to the trash that is frequently collated in Sunday school libraries, but good in their information, style, and power to entertain. Than this we may be reasonably sure there is no better or easier method of keeping young men—and some young women, too—within the influence of the family and away from the evil associations of the street and club. And it is worthy of remark that few tastes are so readily acquired as that for reading, while none is alike so cheaply indulged and so quickly remunerative.

GOLD AND SILVER IN MINNESOTA.—The following extract is from the Ontonagan (Mich.) Miner, of Oct. 16:

A new discovery is reported on the north shore, in American territory, it being a series of ancient pits or diggings on a gold and silver bearing vein, specimens from which go $4,000 to the ton. The discoverer, William Spalding, formerly of Sault Ste. Marie and of the Pennsylvania mine in Keweenaw county, claims that he found in the ancient pits copper tools, some of them drills of copper two feet long. If this is correct it is an important discovery, as nothing of the kind to indicate ancient mining has heretofore been found on the north shore.

The other day, says an exchange, Sam Bowles went to church in Springfield, Mass., and feeling the effect of his severe editorial labors during the week, fell to napping. By and by he was awakened by the preacher, who struck the desk and shouted: "Who shall be able to stand up in the presence of the Lord on that day?" And Sam Bowles, rising in his pew, remarked: "Charles Francis Adams is the only man that can do it, and I nominate him for the position."

Four gentlemen returned from the Lower Fraser on Saturday with bags well filled with game. In three days' shooting they got 170 ducks, besides a few geese, snipe, etc.

JUDGE KELLEY'S THEORIES

RECEPTION OF THE THREE-SIXTY-FIVE BOND PROJECT IN THE SOUTH—HIS SPEECHES AT MACON AND ATLANTA

Special Dispatch to the New York Times.

WASHINGTON Oct 24—Judge Kelley who has been in Georgia attending the State Fair held at Macon has returned, and is delighted with the reception given him and the attention paid his speeches on the currency question delivered at Atlanta and Macon. He says the greetings he received strengthen the conviction that the majority of the people indorse his financial theories. He is not discouraged with the verdict in Ohio and thinks the result cannot be claimed as a victory for hard money. He has no apprehension that the Ohio election will influence the vote in Pennsylvania. He says the inflationists have organized greenback clubs in every section of Pennsylvania, and that an effectual work is being accomplished in a quiet way by the distribution of pamphlets advocating paper money. Henry C Carey's office in Philadelphia is the headquarters for the work of pamphleteering the State, and the constantly increasing demand for these pamphlets leads him to believe that much good is being done the inflation cause by the dissemination of the speeches and writings of his school of finance. He believes Hartranft will be defeated and that the mining and industrial counties in the central and western part of the State will show large losses for the Republicans. Judge Kelley has numerous invitations to deliver addresses in various counties of Pennsylvania but will not decide upon his course of action in the campaign until after his return to Philadelphia. He will leave here to-morrow for his home.

Mr Charles Walker one of the commissioners of Yakima county mysteriously disappeared about a week ago, and a good deal of uneasiness was felt in regard to his safety at last accounts.

Without any event of special importance the week now closing has been one which business men regard as having afforded a good deal to encourage the hope of decided activity in financial and commercial circles. While the money market has ruled closely and those who have unemployed capital adhere firmly to rates that in older and more permanent communities than we have on the Pacific coast would be thought high if not exorbitant, there is less ground for complaint on this score than has usually existed in Oregon and the time when lower rates must prevail, which was indicated by the signs of the times immediately following the financial panic of 1873 may now be said to have come, though not fully as the difference between the rates at which capital is furnished to legitimate enterprises on this coast, and those at which it can be secured in other countries is yet too great, and while more money to develop the country and found manufactories is needed here it must come with the hope of sure but at the same time a reasonably moderate reward because the comparatively limited population necessarily circumscribes the demand for any given article that may be manufactured for sale on the coast and those who have helped to sustain the most of the establishments of this character in Oregon will bear us out in the assertion that manufacturing institutions in this State must be carefully managed and "nursed" a great deal in order to keep them up, and that the fewest of them pay more than the legal rate of interest in the way of net profits.

Daily Review

To give all the events worthy of extended mention that have occurred to-day in local circles would not require a great deal of space. The heavy receipts of wheat and flour both by river and rail continue in a manner to indicate an unusually large volume to the movement of these staples during the current month. Prices are still quoted at our figures last given and it is evident that many farmers are willing to accept our current rates for their wheat early in the season, rather than wait on an uncertain market. Oats are very firm at our former quotations, and the quantity arriving is smaller than average for this season of the year. Barley is coming forward in small lots and quotations are fluctuating a little. The provision and fruit markets are well supplied and prices show but little tendency to appreciate, as the demand abroad for Oregon products of this character seems limited and shipments are said to be unprofitable. Eggs are weaker and may fall to 35c on Monday.

Shipping Intelligence.
